

A Few Client Quotes...

“Trudy, you continue to give women exactly what they need, as evidenced by the outstanding feedback I continue to receive about your panel. I recognize that the summit would not have been a success without your participation and commitment to our vision to deliver a substantive event that will be a staple for the training and development of women of color executives for many years to come.”

Alyssa M. Fant, Event Manager, Black Enterprise

“Trudy you are absolutely inspiring! Your presentation on Seven Strategies for Savvy Women on the Way to the Top” hit the mark! Nothing but one accolade after another. Thank you for making me look good.”

Joan Toth, President and CEO, The Network of Executive Women

“Trudy you have a remarkable way of connecting with the audience in a real and authentic way. You are the secret sauce that made the Blueprint Leadership program so successful. You are a tremendous presenter. The feedback from the participants is stellar. Everyone loved the way you were able to keep it real, tell the truth and spark others to take action. Just awesome!”

Sharon Brogdon, Manager of Diversity, Intel

“Trudy you have a gift to take very complex issues like change and serve it up in a way that individuals, teams and even organizations can put into meaningful action plans. The work that you have done with Rockwell Automation has sparked a true change journey. We look forward to our continued partnership.”

Susan Schmidt, Senior VP Human Resources, Rockwell Automation

“Wanted to thank you so much for the Women of Color Regional Meeting. In my nearly 17 years in the workforce, I think it was the best one-day developmental program that I have ever been to. I came away with some new insights, and honestly some new discoveries about myself that I will need to work on developmentally.”

Jeff Piper, Business Analyst, PepsiCo
